A NOTE ABOUT TEMPLE SINAI MEMBERSHIP RATES:

1. Temple Sinai has two basic classes of members: Full and Associate. A full membership entitles members to all temple services, including High Holy Day tickets and voting rights. An associate membership is available to those who are full dues paying members of another Jewish congregation. Associate members are entitled to temple services, however, associate membership does not include High Holy Day tickets or Temple Sinai voting rights.
2. Temple Sinai's fiscal year is July 1 to June 30. Congregational dues are payable one-half in July and one-half in January, unless you make other arrangements. For those who join during the year, regardless of membership category, a percentage of full dues is applied as follows: November 1—December 31=75%; January 1—March 31=50%; April 1—June 30=25%.
3. In addition to the dues commitment, all full members must contribute to the Temple Sinai building fund. The building fund obligation is $2,500 for family members and $2,200 for single members. The building fund obligation may be paid 20% per year over a five-year period ($500 for family members, $440 for single members).

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Temple Sinai relies on volunteers. Those who volunteer are doing a mitzvah for a community that is very important to all of us—Temple Sinai. As a family, we can work together, have fun and get to know each other better. How much you volunteer is your own choice. We appreciate whatever you are able to do. Please check those skills and interests that apply to you. We will then enter the information into our data bank. When and if a need arises for a volunteer with your skills or interests, we will contact you for assistance.

Thanks so much for helping!
