

SCHOLAR -IN- RESIDENCE

Rabbi Levi Weiman-Kelman founded Congregation Kol HaNeshama in 1985. Through his leadership and vision, it the center for Progressive Jewish life in Jerusalem and has been in the forefront of the struggle for religious pluralism in Israel's highly polarized society. Students living in Jerusalem and visiting tourists, alike, have drawn inspiration from his unique presence and style. A native New Yorker and ordained by the Jewish Theological Seminary, he is also one of the founders of Rabbis for Human Rights. He lectures frequently in Israel and abroad on Jewish spirituality and prayer.

Rabbi Levi Weiman-Kelman JANUARY 19-21, 2018

5:15p Welcome Reception

6:00p Erev Shabbat Service

Experience a service in the style of the Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism and Rabbi Weiman-Kelman's congregation in Jerusalem. Hear him speak about

"The Spiritual Dynamics of Jewish Prayer."

7:15p Shabbat Dinner***

10:00a Shabbat Morning Service

Explore how meditation, chanting and mindfulness combine with liturgy to create a unique prayer experience.

12:00p Lunch & Learn***

Discover the importance of song in Jewish thought through text study and singing with Rabbi Weiman-Kelman in our session
"Music, Healing, Messiah and Redemption."

10:00a Sunday Shmooze:

Spiritual Responses to the Political Situation in Israel

Coffee & Nosh

Examine texts (and anecdotes) that convey the reality of life in Jerusalem. How can one live under a constant security threat while staying committed to basic Jewish values? What does it take to make aliyah, be a committed Zionist and a founder of Rabbis for Human Rights?
No easy answers in this session!

*Paid reservations required for Shabbat dinner and lunch.
Please pay in the temple office or online: SinaiSRQ.org

Got questions?

Contact Steve at 941-922-9322 or sweintraub@SinaiSRQ.org

In honor of Israel's 70th anniversary, underwriting for this Scholar-in-Residence Weekend is provided by the Jewish Federation of Sarasota-Manatee and Rabbi Geoff and Sue Huntting